

Practice on... FULL STOPS

Full stops go at the end of a sentence.
You MUST check your work to see if you have missed any out!

The room was freezing. Tim began to shiver. Suddenly, an enormous noise pierced his hears and he ran as fast as he could.

TASK: Insert the full stops into the passage below.

A train was approaching the platform Eddie was extremely cold and he knew that leaving Dublin had been an incredible mistake he began to weep the crowds swarmed passed him as they were sipping on their coffees and talking on their mobile phones he felt so lost

Practice on... FULL STOPS

Full stops go at the end of a sentence.
You MUST check your work to see if you have missed any out!

The room was freezing. Tim began to shiver. Suddenly, an enormous noise pierced his hears and he ran as fast as he could.

TASK: Insert the full stops into the passage below.

A train was approaching the platform Eddie was extremely cold and he knew that leaving Dublin had been an incredible mistake he began to weep the crowds swarmed passed him as they were sipping on their coffees and talking on their mobile phones he felt so lost

Practice on... COMMAS

Commas can-

1. Be used to list: The room had cobwebs, dingy walls, broken tables and a horrible smell.
2. Be used to insert extra information into a sentence: The room, which was covered in cobwebs, made Spike shudder.
3. Be used to separate bits of a sentence: Although she hated Mexico, she was glad to be away from England.

TASK: Insert the commas into the sentences below:

Asha looked around and saw people chatting babies crying pigeons feasting on trash and one very unhappy looking old lady hunched on a bench.

Although it had been years since the hospital had been used it still stunk of disinfectant.

Wembley which was a sea of blue and white felt as if it was going to engulf her.

Whilst the trees swayed chillingly the sight of the house made him shudder.